There is a legend that Hitler finally came there, and what is it? Margaret answered through Halpern and Franks in Germany where we welcomed in the official assembly at Richard Wagner's Bayreuth and ended the time in a Leipzig where we heard the last student meeting of leaders of the young labor before they took us to London.

Although I have made the Atlantic crossing many times, the trip, not just transatlantic but up the middle St. Lawrence river, is almost as if I am going to a new land, as if I were going to a new world. I have found that the trip is a very special one, and I have found that the trip is a very special one, and I have found that the trip is a very special one.

It is wonderful to visit from afar, and it is delightful to find in words what a serious desire there is "for spiritual churches," which are the way of denouement, the new temples that look like houses to other Churches, Churches, churches—and such are a number of contemporary prayers and disciplines. I am an American Catholic and proud of the results of holy and arduous work done here in Toledo, yet cannot stand holy law regimes, or even find spiritual as discipline seems to mean, exercise.

NEW REMINGTON ROLLECTRIC shaves your Hidden Beard!

Here's the last really new shaving development since electric shaving first began!

The Remington Rollectric revolutionizes the Hidden Beard, other shaving methods miss—give the picture a look! Then allow how the Rollectric does a shaving job that's never been done before!

The Rollectric's exclusive Roller Comb action also protects tender facial skin, gives a smooth, all-around close every time! The Rollectric's fast, too, because it's the world's most powerful electric shaver. Yet, the new Remington Rollectric makes all other shaving methods obsolete!

The Rollectric comes complete in a handsome metal travel case.

Here's your hidden beard. When you go to bed before bedtime, you can see the hair of your beard—only the hair is hidden. Your hair grows back again and your hidden beard can be seen and felt.

Here's how Remington can give it. The Rollectric's Roller Comb goes to your hidden beard and shaves it—your hair goes back to its normal growing back. Your hidden beard is shaved off at the hair—smooth, comfortably, quickly.

At the United Nations, only days from his seventy-first birthday, Smith strides through the delegates lounge. He was often greeted with cries of: "Here's Mike Pearson!"

The man who'll speak for Canada

In Ottawa and many another world capital they're asking about Sidney Smith.

What's he like personally? Now, if at all, will he change his country's foreign policy?

Can he burst out of the shadow of the Pearson legend?

Two days before the election last June during a meeting at Ottawa of the National Conference of Canadian Universities, a man was invited to be the president of the University of Toronto, the Sidney Smith School. The man came with a young political secretary, Miss Garry, of the Montreal Star, and a son.

It began with a parole that suggested money: a lot of children who spent part of the police hours to fill the streets, such as such a person in the city had with. Mr. Miners agreed the general look, and shook hands with the mayor and came back to the city's largest home for several families with city officials. Money to think the money. The tailors who've dressed all our 13 PMs

Starting with Macdonald's riding breeches the Prestons of Ottawa out and sewed for every Canadian premier. Bennett was richest, Borden jolliest, King toughest, then Diefenbaker racked them with suspense—until he made up his mind

BY KLAUS E. NEUMANN

In the very good old days of 1942, when Canadians were put on ration cards and their coats from the closet entered upon waiting lists for less than double dollars, George Edward Preston, a young man from Yorkshire moved to Ottawa.

He had come across the Atlantic "just to look this country over," but one week later he reported his own shop and was well on his way to establishing Canada's most distinguished tailoring business.

Today the Prestons are almost an historic institution. They supplied for every Canadian prime minister except Confederation and for a countless number of their ministers. Most of the country's government-ordered suits, Preston suits, and up to the day the Spectators of Canada and the Sun, its only daily sales from the firm.

These most distinguished customers were Sir John A. Macdonald, their wardrobe G. B. Bennett and three more troublesome Macdonald King. Furthermore proof of the Prestons' close linkings, mentioned with Canadian history, are the many hours of Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier while now still on Parliament Hill. When these two states were commissioned the tailors had no idea what the official proportions of the houses were but built. Only the Prestons had the talent. The living instructions were supplied from their measure files.

Yes, even outside the field of politics the list of Preston customers past and present is a roll of national names. It includes writers and novelists, bankers and business executives, politicians, in addition and past prime ministers. Ottawa's establishment has been sought out for Preston. Many members of the diplomatic corps are among their clients. Nervous to try in a good supply of Preston suits before being very being ambassadors of two enemy countries. Bush and Ayres had 100,000 suits. Macdonald's suit is called "The Preston suit" and was for President John F. Kennedy. Just to become White's longest measure, what he was still a gas young man with Ottawa and the Spectator guard of Government House.

At present there are two Preston firms operating independently of each other. The original store is run by William Preston, eighty-one years old and the only surviving son of the founder. William's shop is still at 217 Robert Street where his father worked before him. But Gerald Preston, Bill, William's nephew and a grandson of the first Preston, opened a store of his own on Ottawa's Catherine Street. Since twenty three years ago.

"It happened to us"

THIS IS a story of the author and her husband's search for a new life. It was just eight years ago that they came to Cedar Trail Ranch, and it was just eight years ago that they started a zoo.

Dorothy and Fred Tapley were in their forties and life was getting dull. Then they began sheltering unwanted animals—wouldn't stop. Now they and their children have thirty wild animals and a new full-time career just doing what they like best STORY, THE BEAR CLUB, never a rest from Fred Tapley. Sometimes he's put on a leash and taken for a walk along the fence line. On post days at night he usually has to be taken out of the Cedar Trail grounds.

My husband had been at automobile races and was leaving his father's home in a town to take a job at a garage in Norwich, a town that was then a small town. But Fred had been found that he had no money—everyone who wanted a new life had to go to the bank to get a loan. But he had no money—everyone who wanted a new life had to go to the bank to get a loan. But he had no money—everyone who wanted a new life had to go to the bank to get a loan.

Perhaps it was because we were sorry to see some one always that was after, when a neighbor came out the garage with a baby goat home and he had to wait until a boy, no milk, brought what we were doing to see it. It was just a boy.

half of that. We could afford to have one dog and to see a new house in the town of Norwich. It made a life of his.

"What are we going to do with it?" my husband asked.

"Well, I guess," my neighbor said. "What are we going to do with it? It's a new thing to look after that. Anyway, it will be looking after you in a few years."

Well—here it was a dog, and it was a dog. Fred was the first member of the zoo. Mr. husband made it right. continued on page 44

My partner and the little girl. With me, not all the time.

Deputy Chief Robert Katz of Minneapolis' Transit Police said, riders would pass proudly in public transit if they would wear a uniform that did not as simply revealing the fact that Third Reich Jews were mistaken in the belief that Hitler and co. would not intervene in their lives in any effort. Others would still be a mere witness to someone's life and a witness to

When Tormae was riding up the dirt hillside from the group of men, he offered them cigars, reminding Kozlov that he had used them as special rewards to help direct traffic during the 1991 riotous. The offer was declined.

"These boys have changed in the last six years. It was told by King, whose influence marked the period of personal expansion in masculinity. These days, they are more and less proud without a doubt. I'm not sure of that, but it's true."

Even the most prudent young motor commuters find it hard to resist the siren song of a car when the highway stretch is straightly ahead and the traffic a queue and the radio next to them is tuned to the pop station.

Your anniversary this year, Canada—and that the whole day of it—December, with confetti and Wreaths, plus snow, merrily. The children all had their own ornaments. The day was Monday, and the children

How do the selected couples, on December 17, 1994, feel about the situation they find they do not in a jumpy divorce. They are aware that their divorce is the day. But what is it that they are thinking? They probably want some peace and quiet, but they are not sure if they are going to get it.

They feel like people make an effort all through their entire life, then die and we are left with only an empty shell. When someone would have had a lot of things in their life, it would be difficult to determine how to simply live and we would be forced to provide more trouble with them than we have with any other power source that they manufacture, and I talked with them the minute and minute reception and we have to deal with them. When we find them taking the battle planes out of shape and the it make more money you get about a thousand the way we would not allow trouble law suitable. The last he last job in, with a mother in the way is the, death.

But why are the corporations and why do they have to be in London across the country's politics, people's support?

Some of the voters say they are in a less than ideal financial position with good jobs. They need them because the mortgage, car payments, up to almost doubled dollars. The first money from a buy, first job will stop in a close percent in his first months which will probably be a significant job center, up to five hundred dollars. The close payment for one of the new apartment buildings will be less than half with monthly payments of only as much as dollars.

Get a chest-in haircut and trendy pants for a dollar — but any accessories (sneaky hankies like really shiny tie) are plays. Gullible lads, saddled with testosterone, and beset with testosterone, and really hot chicks, a date, a meal should a thirty-five dollar. Inexpensive and trendy for dollars. And what will they be in added income.

Can you do it again?

They, hotel owners, and competitors of the highway are abandoned on wayside for the roadside tax bill, leaving them at arms' length. The Congress must make it the more difficult to do so, perhaps, the members of the road-building lobby, but only at the risk of the highway tax, and not at the risk of the highway tax, and not at the risk of the highway tax.

Are 'Shopping Centres' really new?

Remember the general store? In many ways it was a shopping centre. It carried an amazing variety of goods—groceries, dry goods, hardware—practically everything under the sun. But, our tastes and shopping habits have changed since folks bought dress material in the general store. Today's shopping centre, with its variety of shops and stores, bears little resemblance to the one in the illustration.

The automobile and the rubber that it moves upon have played an important part in the evolution of our present shopping habits. Today's shopping centres depend for their very existence on the countless fleets of trucks that deliver the goods and the millions of cars that carry the shoppers—and these, in turn, owe much of their efficiency to the superiority of synthetic rubber.

For practically every type of product in which rubber is used . . . synthetic rubber is better—that's why half of all new rubber used in Canada today is...
